AN UNHAPPY and Beautiful Story.

THE HAND BUT NOT THE HEART;
Of.
LIVE TRIAL OF JESSEL LORING.

By T. S. ARTRUR.

The point of this story is expressed in the title; and the story itself is a sharply drawn illustration of the folly and madnesses of linking together two immercial souls by the rough chains of selfish interest, pride, or baser passion.

The lesson taught is one of deep significance; and thousands of hearts will throb in aimost wild response, to the life experiences of Jessie Loring, who, in all the bitter trials of her unhappy union, exerved not a bair's breath from honor, principle, or religious duty, though temptation came in its most alloring shape.

As the type of a true womain, she is worthy to be embalmed in the memory of every reader.
